

The battles will be conducted in a standard 1v1 format, and it's important to note that even if your troops are at a level higher than 11, they will be considered as level 11 for the duration of the tournament.

This ensures a fair and level playing field for all participants.